

BYU Education Week
Maurine R. and Joseph A. Humphris Fund for Single Parents
Application Form

Applications are accepted annually from April 15 to July 15. A committee reviews the applications that meet the fund criteria (listed below) and assists as many applicants as possible. Distribution amounts are determined by the minimum financial assistance applicants need to attend the program. Preference is given to patrons who have not previously received assistance. Applicants must be U.S. citizens.

Note: Financial assistance for BYU Continuing Education programs may constitute taxable income. Total assistance received in a year of $600 or more is reported on a Form 1099-MISC. An adult applicant for financial assistance or the parent or guardian of a minor applicant for financial assistance may be required to complete a Form W-9 in order to receive financial assistance to allow proper reporting.

Applicants must meet the following Criteria:

1. Single Parent (male or female)
2. Guardian of one or more children under the age of 14
3. Financial need

Application Deadline: July 15
